Awake! Why do You | sleep, O Lord?*
Arise! Do not cast us off for - | ever.
For our soul is bowed down | to the dust;*
arise for our help and re- | deem us.
We have heard with our | ears, O God, *
our fathers have told us the deeds You did in | days of old:
You drove out the nations | with Your hand,*
but you planted our fathers because you | favored them.
You have saved us from our | enemies,*
and have put to shame those who | hated us.
In God we boast | all day long,*
and praise Your name for - | ever.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.
And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Thine over all shall be the praise
And thanks of every nation,
And all the world with joy shall raise
The voice of exultation;
For Thou shalt judge the earth, O Lord,
Nor suffer sin to flourish;
Thy people’s pasture is Thy Word
Their souls to feed and nourish,
In righteous paths to keep them.

Thine has saved us that may not despair
By the blood of Jesus Christ;
AndConfessing Thine name is our delight
And may gain Thine everlasting power.

Thy kingdom come;
Thy will be done on earth
As it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive those who trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory
Everlasting. Amen.

I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have graciously kept me this day; and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.

I thank you, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have graciously kept me this day; and I pray that You would forgive me all my sins where I have done wrong, and graciously keep me this night. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

May God bestow on us His grace,
With blessings rich provide us,
And may the brightness of His face
To life eternal guide us
That we His saving health may know,
His gracious will and pleasure,
And also to the heathen show
Christ’s riches without measure
And unto God convert them.

Prayer for ourselves and others

May God bestow on us His grace,
With blessings rich provide us,
And may the brightness of His face
To life eternal guide us
That we His saving health may know,
His gracious will and pleasure,
And also to the heathen show
Christ’s riches without measure
And unto God convert them.

May God bestow on us His grace,

THEME OF THE WEEK: The Lord's Call to Faith by His Word

The great theme of the week of Sexagesima is that the Lord, by the preaching and teaching of His word, is bringing forth that which He purposes, namely, the righteousness of faith in those who hear and believe it. Also, that the disciple who perseveres in faith and abides in this Word will have no lack of trouble in this life, as St. Paul testifies (2 Corinthians 12:10). But this weakness and wretchedness in the eyes of the world is counted among the mysterious mercies of God, for His strength is made perfect in our weakness. When we are weak, then we are strong.

WED

SCRIPTURE: Isaiah 55:10-13 – There is No True Growth Apart from the Word

Without rain the crops wither and die. The seed that is sowed in the ground cannot bring forth fruit of itself. It needs the rain to water it so that it produces seed for the sower and bread for the eater. So it is with the Word of God. It must shower down upon us as we hear it and believe it so that we can accomplish anything pertaining to God. The Word of the Law crushes our self-righteousness and prepares us for the preaching of His Word of Gospel, which promises the forgiveness of sins, adoption as sons, and all the blessings of God to be received by faith. Without this word of God nothing good happens in us. Thanks be to God that He rains down on us His Word and promises! Lord, open my ears to hear Your life-giving Word. Amen.

THU

SCRIPTURE: Mark 4:26-32 – The Mystery of the Kingdom

In these two short parables, our Lord would have us contemplate the mystery of how the Kingdom of God comes about in us. It is still a wonder, to me at least, that such small seeds like the mustard seed bring forth the most magnificent of plants. It’s almost magical. But this is a picture of how the Kingdom of God comes to us. The most insignificant of things by the world’s standards—the words of an itinerant crucified carpenter, bread, wine, water, are the very means through which the risen Lord Jesus brings about His rule among us sinners. Through these means, He creates and sustains faith, forgives sins, and ushers in His reign in our hearts. This isn’t magic, but the promise of the Lord of all creation. Lord, let Your kingdom come. Amen.

FRI

SCRIPTURE: 2 Timothy 3:10-4:5 – “Continue in the Things You have Learned…All Scripture is God-Breathed”

These words of Paul to Timothy stand as a mighty bulwark against all forms of enthusiasm, the idea that we know of ourselves what is good, what God wants of us, or that we can create new doctrines apart from the expressed Word of God. Paul commands that Timothy not depart from the things which he has learned, to cling to the Word of Scripture, and to preach that Word as God’s own breathed-out Word for teaching, reproof and training in righteousness. There is nothing more certain on earth than God’s own Word. Let us, like St. Timothy, cling to the trustworthy Word as taught, and not depart into self-serving myths to serve our itching ears. Lord, keep us steadfast in Your Word! Amen.

SAT

SCRIPTURE: Psalm 25 – Faith’s Cry to God

Praying this psalm with David, we call out to God in the midst of all our troubles, “…I am lonely and afflicted…the troubles of my heart are enlarged…consider how many are my foes.” As the Christian believes and trusts in the words of the Lord Jesus, some of his troubles may decrease, but it is always true that new troubles will come as well. The enemies of the gospel are ever at hand. Our flesh attacks the new man created in us by the Word. The devil is at work to snatch away the Word from our hearts and bring us again under his dominion. So the Christian cries out in faith. In this psalm, he recounts the faithfulness of the Lord and asks for forgiveness and mercy. And the Lord will hear. In faith, we wait on Him to act. Lord, have mercy on me. Amen.

MON

Those with clean hands and a pure heart, they are the ones who shall ascend to the hill of the Lord, the holy temple to offer right worship of the Lord God. This is a problem for us sinners. Our hands are defiled along with our hearts. Who then can be saved? With man this is impossible but with God all things are possible. He ascends the hill of Calvary with clean hands and heart, though weighed down with the sins of all men. There he reconciles all men with the Father and atones for their sin by His suffering and death. He grants righteousness to all by faith. Now, we sinners dare approach the city set on the hill, Christ’s Church, for here we receive blessing and righteousness from the God of our salvation. Lord cleanse me of my sin. Amen.

TUE

SCRIPTURE: 2 Corinthians 11:19-12:9 – Strength in Weakness

We are totally dependent on God for all things, from the breath we take to the free gift of salvation which comes through Jesus Christ. But our flesh usually believes itself self-sufficient and even worthy of the blessings of our Lord. This is why Paul rejoices in his suffering. He boasts that when he is weak, when he suffers from the maladies of the flesh and even from persecution, he cannot boast of himself in any way. It is then that all he has is Christ. And that is enough. The God who loves you and has redeemed you will sometimes use the trials you face to tear down your idols and bring you closer to Him. When this happens, trust Him. Rest in Him alone. He will not fail you. Lord, help me in my trials to cling to You alone. Amen.

SUN

There is a reason that we do not call this parable “the parable of the four different soils.” To do so would distract us, for we would naturally want to look at our own hearts and ask, “What kind of soil am I?” Any answer we give would be wrong. “I am good soil” is presumptive. “I am rocky/hard/thorny soil” is to adjudge the Sower as foolish and mistaken in His sowing. Rather, the parable is descriptive of how the divine Word is attacked and choked out in us, the real danger that we Christians face. Be on guard. The devil, the world, and the flesh are hostile and real. But also rejoice that the Divine Sower sows the Word in you, that you would be forgiven and bring forth fruits in patience. Lord Jesus, sow Your Word in my heart that I would love You. Amen.
