“The Lord’s Call to Repentance”

1. BLESS YOURSELF WITH THE HOLY CROSS AND SAY:
In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

2. SAY THE APOSTLES’ CREED
I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.
   And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.
   I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

3. PRAY THE LORD’S PRAYER
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

4. PRAY THE MORNING OR EVENING PRAYER
   Morning. I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.

   Evening. I thank you, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have graciously kept me this day; and I pray that You would forgive me all my sins where I have done wrong, and graciously keep me this night. For into Your hands, I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.

5. PRAY THE PSALM OF THE WEEK Psalm 85:5-6; 18:1-2, 27, 32, 49
The sorrows of Sheol sur¬rounded me;* the snares of death con¬fronted me.
In my distress I called up¬on the Lord,* He heard my voice from His temple.
I will love You, O Lord, my strength.*
The Lord is my rock and my fortress. For You will save the humble people,* but will bring down haughty looks.
It is God who arms me with strength,* and makes my way perfect.
Therefore I will give thanks to You, O Lord, and sing praises to Your name.

6. SAY TOGETHER THE VERSE OF THE WEEK Psalm 23:5
“You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies: You anoint my head with oil: my cup overflows.”

7. READ THE SCRIPTURE AND DEVOTION (OTHER SIDE OF THE PAGE)

8. PRAY THE PRAYER OF THE WEEK
O Lord, we implore You favorably to hear the prayers of Your people that we, who are justly punished for our offenses, may be mercifully delivered by Your goodness, for the glory of Your name: through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Savior, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

9. PRAYER FOR OURSELVES AND OTHERS

10. SING OR SAY THE HYMN OF THE WEEK TLH 377, LBS 555
Salvation Unto Us Has Come

1. Salvation unto us has come
By God’s free grace and favor;
Good works cannot avert our doom,
They help and save us never.
Faith looks to Jesus Christ alone,
Who did for all the world atone:
He is our one Redeemer.

6. Since Christ hath full atonement made
And brought to us salvation,
Each Christian therefore may be glad
And build on this foundation.
Thy grace alone, dear Lord, I plead,
Thy death is now my life indeed,
For Thou hast paid my ransom.

SCRIPTURE: Matthew 20:1-16 -- Who Skips Payday?

We want justice and fairness. At least, we say we do when in benefits us. The workers in the front of the line were not grumbling about their excess pay. The men in the back were, and we are tempted to do the same, to think that our sinful desire and abandoning discipline caused a lot of harm to Israel. So we work, and we are paid, and we are expected to do our utmost. But what if we also thought that we were given as gifts from God? TUE

SCRIPTURE: 1 Corinthians 9:24-10:5 -- Discipline

Discipline won't save you. Only Christ can do that. The Scriptures are clear about this. But still, there is an important place for Christian discipline. A lack of discipline is harmful physically and spiritually to us and to our neighbor. Christ alone saves us and names us heirs to the kingdom, yet failing to fight sinful desire and abandoning discipline caused a lot of harm to Israel. So we measure our desires against the Scriptures, rather than the lusts of the flesh. We practice discipline because sin destroys, and our Lord Jesus has given us over to life, not death. Heavenly Father, grant us discipline by Your Holy Spirit, that we may strive towards good and reject evil. Amen.

SCRIPTURE: Jeremiah 1:4-10 -- One is Greater than One Hundred

The call of Jeremiah reminds us that God sends preachers. Still! Still pastors are sent to preach His Word of Law and Gospel, “to throw down and to build” (Jeremiah 1:10). There are many reasons we might not want to listen to our pastors. He’s a sinner. He tells us what we’d rather not hear. We might prefer the guy who never mentions sin, or the pastor who preaches about us more than Jesus. When God sends a pastor, he preaches Law and Gospel, and God wants us to hear him, to hold preaching and the Word to be sacred. Your pastor doesn’t speak his own words, but God’s. God speaks through that sinner just for you. Listen. O Holy Ghost, speak through pastors that they would preach every word You give them to say, and that the people would be gathered in faith to hear. Amen.

THU

SCRIPTURE: Matthew 25:14-30 -- God’s Gifts Do Stuff

Jesus gives gifts to us. He gives us life, joy, courage, wisdom, peace, and all of this above and beyond His most wonderous gift of the forgiveness of all of our sins. He does not authorize us to keep these gifts to ourselves. He gives to us and through us, to our neighbor. He wants His gifts to spread and grow, not to be buried, which is why the travelling man is so upset to return home and find his talents buried. These gifts are effective and lively as they give life. O LORD, help us to see the gifts You give us as precious treasures, that we may always use them according to Your will for our good. Amen.

SCRIPTURE: Acts 17:22-34 -- Don’t Just Capitalize the “G,” Receive the Resurrection

It’s not ok that the “unknown god” stay unknown. Paul doesn’t just capitalize the G. He corrects the doctrine. The crowd stays with him while he talks about stone idols. They even seem ok with the idea that they should repent before the Day of Judgment. It’s the Resurrection that pushed them over the top. Every religion has laws and doctrines, even the ones with a lowercase g. Every religion has law. Christianity has Gospel: Christ crucified and raised to forgive you your sins and bring you to the resurrection to life eternal. The world stumbles on this truth. We believe and rejoice. O Risen Lord, fix our eyes upon Your sacrifice and resurrection, and let it always be preached to a world that does not yet know You. Amen.

SAT

SCRIPTURE: Psalm 114 Israel Was Not Just about Geography

When Israel left Egypt, God promised them their own land. But even before they reached the promised land, God was their God. The sea ran from them! Bread rained for them in the wilderness. Israel dwelt securely in the midst of the Red Sea, pursued by Egyptian chariots, because God was present to be their shelter. Israel dwelt securely in the wilderness because the Lord was their Shepherd. Israel is not geography, it is where God is to save. The church still isn’t bound by geography. God has promised to be where His Word is preached truly and His sacraments administered rightly. The map still jumps around as God knows Israel together in Divine Service. O LORD, knit together Your elect from all tribes and nations, and gather us around Your table at Your church regardless of where we live. Amen.
