PRAY THE PSALM OF THE WEEK  Psalm 119:137, 124, 1-2, 5-6 Righteous are / You, O Lord,*
and upright are Your / judgments.
Deal with Your servant according to Your / mercy,*
and teach me Your / statutes.
Blessed are the undefiled / in the way,*
who walk in the law / of the Lord!
Blessed are those who keep His testi- / monies,*
who seek Him with the / whole heart!
Oh, that my ways were / directed* to keep Your / statutes!
Then I would not / be ashamed,*
when I look into all Your com- / mandments.

BLESS YOURSELF WITH THE HOLY CROSS AND SAY:
In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

PRAY
THE LORD’S PRAYER
Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily
bread;
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into
temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory
forever and ever. Amen

SAY THE APOSTLES’ CREED
I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.
And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell.
The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAY THE MORNING OR EVENING PRAYER Morning. I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You
have graciously kept me this day;
and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You.
For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.

Evening. I thank you, my heavenly Father, through Jesus
Christ, Your dear Son, that You
have graciously kept me this day;
and I pray that You would forgive me all my sins where I have done wrong, and graciously keep me this night. For into Your hands, I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe
may have no power over me. Amen.

In Thee alone, O Christ, my Lord
My hope on earth remaineth;
I know Thou wilt Thine aid afford,
Naught else my soul sustaineth.
No strength of man, no earthly stay
Can help me in the evil day;
Thou, only Thou, canst aid supply.
To Thee I cry;
On Thee I bid my heart rely.

1. In Thee alone, O Christ, my Lord,
My hope on earth remaineth;
I know Thou wilt Thine aid afford,
Naught else my soul sustaineth.
No strength of man, no earthly stay
Can help me in the evil day;
Thou, only Thou, canst aid supply.
To Thee I cry;
On Thee I bid my heart rely.

3. O Lord, in mercy stay my heart
On faith’s most sure foundation
And to my inmost soul impart
Thy perfect consolation.
Fill all my life with love to Thee,
Toward all men grant me charity;
And at the last, when comes my end,
Thy succor send.
From Satan’s wiles my soul defend.

“Humble Love of Brothers in Faith”
THEME OF THE WEEK: Humble Love of Brothers in Faith

God kills and makes alive again (I Sam. 2:6). Through this action, we are humbled under the mighty hand of God through the Law, which puts to death in us all sin and evil desire. He makes us alive again through Christ our Lord, who has humbled Himself to the point of death, even death on the cross. As those redeemed by His death, we now live our lives in the light of His life. Having been renewed and regenerated by the Holy Spirit’s work in the Word and Baptism, we now live our lives in humble service to others.

SCRIPTURE: 1 Samuel 2:1-10: God exults the humble

After Hannah receives the blessing of the child Samuel, she prays a prayer similar in tone to Mary’s Magnificat in Luke 1. Here is a warning that God humbles those who are proud, but He promises to exult those who are of humble estate. Who are the humble? They are those who fear, love, and trust in God above all things, looking to Christ alone for every good thing.

_O Lord, teach us not to trust in the might of man for salvation, but to look only to Christ. Amen._

SCRIPTURE: Mark 2:18-28: Jesus is Lord of the Sabbath

On Sunday, we heard of Jesus’ healing of the man with dropsy and the ensuing parable of the wedding feast. Today, this takes a slightly different turn to show what the humility of Jesus drives Him to do in order to serve His people. In healing on the Sabbath, Jesus shows us the true purpose of that day: to bring God’s gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation to His people. Thus, the Divine Service is not about what we are to do for God, but what our God does for us in His Word and Sacraments.

_O Lord, save us by Your gracious power, working through the means of grace. Amen._

SCRIPTURE: Jude 20-25: God’s Mercy in Christ

God has shown us mercy in our Lord Christ Jesus, snatching us from death and the fire of hell. As those redeemed by Christ, we are made partakers of God’s mercy work to those around us. It is our joy to participate in this work by proclaiming the hope found in Christ alone to those who are perishing. Though God does not need us, He is pleased to use us to bring others into His kingdom.

_O Lord, keep us from the temptations of the evil one, and give us boldness to proclaim Your saving work to others. Amen._

SCRIPTURE: Psalm 56: Delivered from death to walk in life

Psalm 56 is a prayer for the baptized. As we have been baptized into the death of Christ, we have been raised again to live a new life before God in righteousness and purity forever. God redeems us so that we walk before Him in the light of life. This is present tense! We live a new life now, putting our sinful nature to death daily and striving to live before God according to His Word. This is the work of the Holy Spirit in us even now, as we wait for the revelation of our eternal lives on the Last Day.

_O Lord, because You have delivered us from death, grant us to walk before You in the light of life. Amen._
